MOTION FOR ONE-WEEK EXTENSION OF DUE DATE FOR OPENING EXPERT REPORTS

Plaintiff Telcordia Technologies, Inc. respectfully moves the Court for a one-week extension of the due date for opening expert reports from the party or parties bearing the burden of proof, which currently is June 26, 2006. The reasons for this motion are as follows:

1. Yesterday, Thursday June 22, 2006, the Court issued its claim construction order in the above matters.

2. By previous agreement of the parties, the current due date for service of opening expert reports by the party or parties bearing the burden of proof is Monday June 26, 2006, two business days after issuance of the Court's claim construction order.

3. Telcordia believes that a one-week extension of the agreed-upon due date for service of opening expert reports would be in the best interests of the Court and the parties because it would permit the parties' experts to review and digest the Court's construction of claim terms and incorporate the Court's claim construction into their reports before submitting them.

4. Accordingly, Telcordia respectfully requests that paragraph 5 of the Scheduling Order in these actions be amended to extend the due date for opening expert reports from the party or parties bearing the burden of proof to July 3, 2006.

5. This morning, counsel for Telcordia asked each defendant whether it was willing to consent to Telcordia's proposed extension, but an agreement has not been reached. Although under ordinary circumstances counsel for Telcordia would have allowed more time for the parties to confer before burdening the Court with a motion, given the press of time we wanted to provide the Court with as much time as possible before the current deadline to consider Telcordia's request.
